Summary

---

I have been a professional actor in Las Vegas since 2006, doing everything from main roles to improv dinner theater to background work. I studied theater and I understand how important everyone is to a production. The actors role is to show up on time and be prepared.

Accomplishments

I worked at Star Trek: The Experience and due to my dedication in the roles given to me, I earned the opportunity to do outside acting work for the company. This included Trade Shows and events such as Read Across America.

I portrayed various roles at a Las Vegas murder mystery dinner theater. The director enjoyed my performance and work ethic so much that he continues to call me to offer roles.

I currently work as a front of house entertainer for KA by Cirque Du Soleil. My improvisation skills and customer service have gotten me various employee recognition certificates, as well as an appreciative letter in the company's pre-shift.

Experience

Starfleet Officer at Star Trek: The Experience

August 2006 to September 2008

I had to mimic the military command style of the television show the experience was based on. I was prepared to jump into any role as needed and memorize over an hour and half of show material. I collaborated with my fellow cast members to execute a seamless performance night after night.

Actor at Marriage Can Be Murder

February 2009

I landed a role in this wonderful murder mystery dinner theater as Murder Victim Number One. Since then I have played multiple roles in the show, including the murderer, where I got to deliver the shows final monologue, eliciting gasps and laughter from the audience. The director still calls me to offer roles.

Actor at KA by Cirque Du Soleil

December 2010 to current

I play the maiden in the village of KA and continuously flush out my character through interaction with the audience, the other characters, and incorporate notes and direction from our boss.
